

ANNOUNCEMENT

Building Q429: New District 30 Middle School

A new District 30 middle school will open in September 2023 in building Q429, located at 47-10 Barnett Avenue, Queens, NY 11104. The new school at Q429 will be open to students and residents of District 30, with a geographic priority for District 30 residents zoned to I.S. 125 (24Q125) in District 24 (area outlined in blue).

If your child lives or attends elementary school in District 30 and will begin sixth grade in September 2023, they are eligible to apply for the new middle school at Q429.

If you live in the area of District 30 zoned to I.S. 125 (outlined in blue):

- You will have priority access to the new middle school in Q429.
 - Geographic priority gives students living within a particular geographic area priority access to a school but does not entitle residents of the area to a seat.
- You remain zoned for I.S. 125 and maintain this zoned option.
 - Students residing in the zone for a particular school are entitled to a seat at that school.

To determine if you live in this area, and for more information about your zoned middle school options, type your address into the zone finder tool at <https://schoolsearch.schools.nyc/>. More information on middle school admissions can be found on the NYCDOE's website at: <http://www.schools.nyc.gov/middle>.
